Aspiring Software Engineer

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

I am writing to express my enthusiasm for the [position you're applying for] at [Company Name], as advertised. With a strong background in computer science, mathematics, and software engineering, along with current research experience in cybersecurity, I am eager to bring my technical skills and passion for innovation to your team.

As a student at Central Washington University majoring in Computer Science with a minor in Mathematics, I have cultivated a solid academic foundation, maintaining a 3.9 GPA while actively engaging in research and real-world projects. I have completed three internships as a Software Engineer, where I contributed to the development of scalable applications and gained practical experience in full-stack development and software design.

Currently, I am conducting undergraduate research in cybersecurity at CWU, focusing on areas such as network security, threat detection, and secure software development. This hands-on research has deepened my interest in protecting digital infrastructure and has enhanced my problem-solving and analytical skills.

I am particularly drawn to [Company Name]'s dedication to [specific area of company's work or mission], and I believe my experience aligns well with your goals. Whether it's through writing secure and efficient code, collaborating across teams, or tackling complex technical challenges, I am excited about the opportunity to contribute meaningfully to your organization.

Beyond my academic and technical qualifications, I am a motivated learner and team player who thrives in dynamic environments. I approach each project with a detail-oriented mindset and a strong commitment to continuous growth—qualities I believe will make me a valuable asset to your team.

I would welcome the opportunity to further discuss how my background and experiences can support the success of [Company Name]. I have attached my resume and would appreciate the chance to interview at your convenience.

Thank you for your time and consideration. I look forward to hearing from you.
